Wilna in Lithuania, Nov. 21. N. S. The Quarrel between the Houſes of Sapieha and Oginsky went ſo far, that on the 19th Inſtant they had a ſharp Engagement about 7 Miles from hence; Prince Sapieha's Party were routed, and loſt all their Cannon, and 1000 Men on both ſides were killed on the ſpot; Prince Sapieha's ſecond Son, and the Sieur Wyona Staroſt of Broſlaw, were taken Priſoners, and the next morning were cut in Pieces by Oginsky's Men.

Stockholm, Nov. 27. The Muſcovite Merchants here having Advice, that the Goods of the Swediſh Merchants in Muſcovy were ſeized, and expecting to be treated in like manner, ſhipp'd off their beſt Effects on board ſome Merchant Ships in this Port, and ſent them away towards Narva, in order to have them ſecured in the Czar of Muſcovy's Camp before that Place; But we have ſince received an Account, that theſe Veſſels were met at Sea by ſome Swediſh Frigats, who carried them into Revel, and that there were found on board 220000 Dollars in Money, and Goods to a very conſiderable value. Letters from Revel of the 10th Inſtant ſay, the King of Sweden was aſſembling his Forces in order to march to the Relief of Narva, which would make about 40000 Men. That the Muſcovites had ſent a Detachment of 4000 Men to burn the Magazines at Weſinberg, but were beat off with conſiderable loſs by 2000 Swedes, who were in that Place under the Command of General Reybinder; And that the Muſcovites having ſent divers Boats with Artillery, Proviſions, and Ammunition from Pleskow upon the Peypus Lake towards Narva, the Commander of the Swediſh Garriſon at Derpt having notice thereof, ſent out ſeveral Barks with Soldiers, who took 7 of the ſaid Boats, in which they found divers Pieces of Cannon, a good quantity of Ammunition, and a great Standard, which was made in Muſcovy to be uſed in the Czar's Army.

Vienna, Nov. 24. The Emperor has not yet received a format Notification of the King of Spain's Death, and till that comes, the Court defers putting on Mourning for this occaſion. Orders are given for augmenting the Imperial Forces; each Regiment of Horſe is to be made up 1200, and each Regiment of Foot 2400 Men; and theſe Recruits are to be compleated by February next. Here is a Diſcourſe likewiſe of raiſing more Troops, and particularly that the Emperor will take into his Service 7 or 8000 Huſſars and Croats. The States of the Lower Auſtria are to aſſemble here in few days. They write from Hungary, that the Turkiſh Ambaſſador was expected the 23d Inſtant at Eſſeck, and Count Otting the Emperor's Ambaſſador the 24th at Belgrade, and the Exchange of theſe Ambaſſadors would be made near Salankemen in the uſual manner. Some Advices from Turkey ſay, a great Tumult has lately happened at Conſtantinople, during which the Grand Viſier and Mufti were ſtrangled; but there being no account thereof directly from thence, we know not what Credit is to be given to this Report.

Berlin, Novemb. 27. Several Expreſſes have lately paſſed between this and the Court of Vienna, and in purſuance of what has been agreed with the Emperor, the Elector of Brandenburgh
